What: CCVT has been working towards building better relationships with local Indigenous communities in efforts of truth and reconciliation. We believe that youth are key actors in moving our reconciliation efforts forward. On that note, CCVT invites you to join in the Newcomer Youth for Truth and Reconciliation committee! We are looking for 15 to 20 newcomer youth aged 18 and 30 years who are committed to learn about Indigenous issues and build good relations with Indigenous communities. We will offer a series of action-oriented workshops where you can gain knowledge about Indigenous issues and learn practical skills to support an Indigenous-led initiative. At the end, CCVT will support you to organize an event that raises awareness about Indigenous issues as part of this project. We are hoping to host this event on June 26, 2023, International Day In support of Victims of Torture. During this event, the intention is to raise funds to support for an Indigenous-led initiative. We have identified Ganohkwasra as a potential initiative we can support. Ganohkwasra is an Indigenous led initiative and operates within the Six Nations. They address gender-based/family violence as well as Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. <https://ganohkwasra.com/mmiwg/>

After the meaningful participation in this committee, the participants will be given a certificate of leadership. Tokens and refreshments are provided for in-person workshops.

Registration link will be posted soon.
